iBienvenidos!

On behalf of Visit El Paso, I'd like to say thank you for taking time to meet with us. Enclosed you will find useful information that will help you discover what locals call "The Sun City". We definitely have more history, culture, and pride in our city than any other.

El Paso isn't called the Sun City for nothing. Every year, we have more than 300 days of bright, sunny weather. That's more than 300 perfect days to bike, climb, swim, run, throw, kick, and anything else that can be done under the sun. From the award-winning Southwest University Triple-A baseball stadium to a 92-acre sports complex and a $180 million state-of-the-art multipurpose arena, El Paso's making incredible strides.

Aside from El Paso Chihuahuas Triple-A baseball and El Paso Locomotives FC soccer games, Southwest University Park has been used for other sporting events such as the Michelob Ultra El Paso Marathon, ESPN Sports Expo, Jennifer Han Title Night at the Ballpark (boxing), and Club Leon vs. FC Juarez (soccer).

El Paso is currently in the midst of a downtown renaissance. The city you may think you know has changed dramatically in the last five years and will continue to do so thanks, in part, to a Quality of Life bond which will give half a billion dollar investment to El Paso. This has allowed El Paso to attract major hotel projects like the new Aloft Hotel, Hotel Indigo, a $100 million renovation to the historical Hotel Paso del Norte, a $97 million dollar Streetcar project, new museums, public art projects, new parks including the redesign of the San Jacinto Plaza, a zoo expansion, libraries and even a new skate park!

A SPORTS-FRIENDLY CITY, WE'VE HOSTED:

- Annual Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl Football Game for the last 80+ years
- Sun City Crit (2019)
- Triple-A Allstar Game & Home Run Derby (2019)

he Inderwood

- Gildan Triple-A National Championship (2015)
- Showtime Championship Boxing: Julio Cesar Chavez Jr. vs Marcos Reyes (2015)
- United States Bowling Congress Open Championships (2015)
- Conference USA Men's and Women's Basketball Championships (2011 & 2014)
- United States Bowling Congress Women's Championships (2010)

Visit El Paso and El Paso Live are committed to making your next tournament/ event the most successful yet and look forward to hosting you in a city with a great mix of history, culture and the best hospitality around. I look forward to hearing from you in the near future and want you to know that we are eager, not only to assist you, but to also welcome your attendees with open arms.

Sincerely,

Assistant General Manager

Venues

Let the Visit El Paso Team help you plan an event for the record books!

Sports event planners have discovered El Paso is sun-soaked, warm and always ready for kickoffs, tip-offs and starting guns. Our venues excel at basketball; track and field; baseball and soccer as well as some of the best golf in the Southwest. Additionally, our 2012 quality-of-life bond has given us half a billion dollars to create new venues and improve existing fields, parks, courts, lanes, pools and diamonds.

INDOOR VENUES

Westside Natatorium

MISSIONS

Located in El Paso's Lower Valley, this Trail is rich in history dating back 400 years. Sure to take your breath away, these three adobe churches remain as living testaments to the faith of our Spanish and Indian ancestors. Established in 1862 the Ysleta Mission is the cornerstone of the Ysleta del Sur Indian Pueblo. Two miles east lay the Socorro Mission and it's architecture reflects the culture, politics and insurmountable spirit of the early settlers of this vibrant town. Established in 1789, the San Elizario Chapel is an amazing paragon of late adobe church architecture in West Texas and New Mexico. It is an exquisite reflection of European architectural styles on the earlier, simpler box-like missions of the region.
